

FRANK SLOCUMB 2019 SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

This $2,000 scholarship is to honor Rotarian and Rotary Club of Naperville Lifetime Achievement Award recipient, Frank Slocumb. This scholarship is awarded to two students who currently attend, or will be attending, one of the following local community colleges: College of DuPage, Joliet Junior College or Waubonsee Community College.

Recipients are to be of strong moral character, active in multiple community service organizations and have a high financial need. First preference will be given to candidates who enroll in an Associate in Arts or Associate in Science degree program that will enable them to transfer to a four-year college or university. Individuals who are first generation college students are encouraged to apply.

Completed applications are due March 31, 2019. Late applications will not be accepted. Note - As this form is a PDF – you will be able to type your information/answers directly on it, save it and send the saved, electronic copy to us at the email address below or you may type or print (in ink) all information requested and mail it to the mailing address below.

- If necessary, use additional paper/add a word.doc to answer questions
- Clarity and neatness are important
- Typed application preferred
- Handwritten accepted
